

FFEA OUTSTANDING CHAPTER PROGRAM

(Updated August 15, 2017)

Florida Future Educators of America will award eight school chapters per year (two per award period) with the coveted title of Outstanding FFEA Chapter. Four awards will be given to those chapters in the elementary/middle school category, and four awards will be given to those in the secondary/post-secondary category.

Eligibility Guidelines:

1. The school chapter must be officially registered with the Florida Department of Education.
2. The school chapter must submit a self-nomination form by the nomination deadline. Only one nomination per chapter is allowed each period.
3. The chapter activities described in the self-nomination form must have occurred during the nomination period.
4. The school chapter must not have already won an Outstanding Chapter Award in that school year.

How to Self-Nominate:

Fill out the self-nomination form (page 2) and submit it to EdRecruit@fldoe.org by the appropriate nomination deadline listed below. Please be aware that your nomination may be shared with other FFEA chapters.

2017-2018	Award Period 1 Deadline:	Friday, October 13, 2017, 5:00 PM (includes summer)
	Award Period 2 Deadline:	Friday, December 8, 2017, 5:00 PM
	Award Period 3 Deadline:	Friday, February 23, 2018, 5:00 PM
	Award Period 4 Deadline:	Friday, April 27, 2018, 5:00 PM

How Are Winners Chosen?

Winners are selected by a committee of Florida Department of Education staff. The focus should be on chapter activities that highlight service in education activities in addition to community service, fundraising and recruitment.

Rewards:

Each chapter that wins Outstanding FFEA Chapter will receive:

- Recognition on the Florida Department of Education website.
- Recognition during a general session at the FFEA annual conference.
- For secondary and post-secondary chapters only: One free extra hotel room provided to the FFEA chapter for the annual FFEA conference.

For more information: Please contact the FFEA State Coordinator at EdRecruit@fldoe.org or 850-245-0554.
