

Celebrate Literacy Week, Florida! January 23-27, 2017

Daily

*Breakfast and Books: read-alouds each morning via television by Principal, AP, Dean, Guidance

*DEAR: each morning reading school wide 6-12

*Author Quotes: Principal will share a quote by an author during morning announcement

*Community Readers: community leaders to share their favorite children's book with our Prek-2 grade students

*Door Decorating Contest: classes will decorate their doors and winners will be announced on Friday

*Students who have read ONE MILLION words, as tracked by AR, will receive a "Millionaire" T-shirt!

Monday, January 23 rd	*Literacy for Lunch
Tuesday, January 24 th	*Pop-up Civics Quiz Show, Part 1: three teams compete, the two teams with the highest score will compete on Thursday
Wednesday, January 25 th	*Community Leaders will share with our 6-12 grade students how literacy, reading, writing, speaking, plays a role in their jobs.
Thursday, January 26 th	*Pop-up Civics Quiz Show, Part 2: two teams compete to determine the winner.
Friday, January 27 th	*Muffins for Moms: moms will be invited to have breakfast with their children, receive literacy strategies, and free books *Scavenger Hunt: teams of middle and high students will participate in a scavenger hunt for books around the school using clues provided.