

Escambia County Celebrate Literacy Week Plan--Secondary

School	Monday, January 23	Tuesday, January 24	Wednesday, January 25	Thursday, January 26	Friday, January 27
Bailey Middle	Hats Off to Dr. Seuss - Wear a Cat in the Hat or crazy hat today.	Read My Shirt Day - Wear a shirt that others can read which is appropriate for school!	Wear Crazy Fox in Sox - Wear those crazy socks you have in that secret drawer! AND Meet the Author - Media Assistants present their Author Studies on Bailey Vision.	Twin Day - Grab a twin and dress up. Think of a book with twins AND Poetry Slam - Write your poem to present during 8th period in the cafeteria. Everyone, including teachers and administrators, can write a poem to present! Categories will be announced! Awards will be given for the prize-winning poems.	Bring a Book Character to Life - Dress up as your favorite book character. Invitation only Creative Writing Workshop during 2nd period in the Innovation Center with Jennifer Siddoway, our visiting author.
	Teachers and students decorate their doors with their favorite book character or the one you are currently reading in class. A short synopsis needs to be placed by the book decoration. The doors will be judged officially on Friday afternoon!
Bellview Middle	Hats Off to Reading; Million Minute Marathon; Door decorating kick-off	Read My Shirt (t-shirt with slogan)	Literacy field trip to Pine Forest with some of our 8th grade students; Score with a Good Book (favorite team's attire)	Read to an elementary student (Student Council field trip to Bellview Elementary); Reading Rocks, Wear Funny Socks; Family Literacy Night--Bingo for Books	Judge door decorating; Catch Some Rays and Read (wear sunglasses)
	Door decorating contest; Sunshine Books book talks on the morning news; additional SSR time in Reading and LA classes
Ernest Ward Middle	Marathon Monday and students will dress in colors of their favorite sport team. Poster contest begins.	Tacky Tourist Tuesday and students would dress accordingly.	Wacky Sock Wednesday/ Family Literacy Lunch. CCTV will record an LA class reading of Do unto Otters to be shown during lunches.	Thinking Hat Thursday and students will be asked to wear hats in support of literacy.	Favorite Character Friday and students will dress as their favorite literary character. Poster contest judging.
	Students will participate in Million Minute Marathon. School-wide read aloud of Freak, the Mighty by Rodman Philbrick.

Escambia County Celebrate Literacy Week Plan--Secondary (cont.)

Escambia High	During Gator Time, students will read for 20 minutes. (Million Minutes)	Create your own bookmarks using the CLW theme.	Read A Loud in the innovation center during Gator Time	Vote for your favorite book of All times!	Book Display of the favorite books (that are available)
Book trailers will air on the school's news show GNN.
Ferry Pass Middle	We have received a school grant and we will be doing our 2nd Read Aloud- "Darth Paper Strikes Back." We are collaborating with the ELA department for activities dealing with friendship and cooperation such as poetry, writing activities, art with origami, etc....
Northview High	Introduce Book Poster Contest Introduce Best Group Reading Photography Contest Introduce Best "Selfie with Book" Contest Book Trivia Lesson plan for 1st period teachers with materials and prizes included. Daily Literacy Facts over PA system and Ongoing Contest
Pensacola High	All Literacy Leadership Team members (LLT) will post what they are reading on their office/classroom door and encourage all instructional staff to join in!			PHS Title One will sponsor Parent Literacy Night to increase parental awareness of on-line, text-based, and school-based resources designed to assist students with ELA FSA, Math EOCs, PERT, ACT, SAT, & ASVAB. Parents will have the opportunity to check out books from the PHS Title One Parent Resource Library.
The Literacy Coach will introduce “Poor Students, Rich Teaching: Mindsets for Change” to PHS instructional staff and will emphasize an idea or best practice daily. Students participate in a Book Talk based upon beginning of the year selections. Students complete a reflection regarding their experience at the end of the Book Talk and turn it into the Book Talk Facilitator. Students participate in PHS Teen Reads Program in Innovation Center.

Escambia County Celebrate Literacy Week Plan--Secondary (cont.)

Pine Forest High	Million Minute Marathon (???) P.A.R.T.Y! For 20 minutes, Pick Anything and Read To Yourself!	Our students to Longleaf to read to their students	Our students to Longleaf to read to their students		Winner of Door Competition Announced
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Literacy Insight on Announcement 2. Book trailer and Author Spotlight on ENN (Focused on YA authors/ FL Teen Reads books) 3. SSR in Reading 4. SOAR—FL Teen Reads, buttons, and Comics, and “shelfies” 5. King Close reading
Ransom Middle	"Be a good sport and read." Wear favorite team clothing.	"Get lost in a good book." Wear camouflage.	"Sock it to reading." Wear crazy socks.	"Newspaper Day" Wear black and white to symbolize newspapers. Share newspapers in class.	"Book character day" Dress up like a favorite book character.
Door decorating contest-Each classroom teacher will decorate the outside of their door to represent literacy week. Tiger Book Talks--Teacher and student book talk videos to air on Tiger TV (favorite book or currently reading). "What I'm reading now"--teachers will post a photo copy of a book they are currently reading. In advisory, students will research literacy stats in the city, county, state and country and the different kinds of literacy organizations. Guess How Many Books in Our Library?: We have a guessing jar to enter to win one of the Sunshine State books from prior years. The person/or top 3/ who guesses the closest get to pick a free book from prior SSYRA ones. In the Innovation Center, we are planning on doing a "Let the Fates Decide" roll the dice activity here. Students' book selections would be determined by the # of the roll. For example, if a 5 is rolled, 5=Read a book about a dog. They'd look in the catalog or get help to find a book with a dog in it. All students will read for 20 minutes for the Million Minute Marathon (research class).
Tate High	Aggie Book Giveaway - Used and new books will be available in the Innovation Center all week for student pick up. Aggie Book Choice Award - Students may drop their names and favorite Teen Reads book title in a box in the media center. A drawing will be held at the end of the week, and winners will receive a Teen Reads book of their choice. Aggie Innovation Tour - Students will create and film PSAs about the Innovation Center and its resources. The PSAs will be viewed daily and on Friday students will vote for the best production.
Warrington Middle	Book Giveaway: Students will have the chance to	Character Parade: Faculty, staff, and	Military service members read their favorite books to students during lunches	Sock-It-To-Reading: Staff, faculty, and students will wear	Door decorating contest tied to theme “Literacy Changes our World”

Escambia County Celebrate Literacy Week Plan--Secondary (cont.)

	receive a free book from the "WMS Read Box"	students dress as their favorite book character		crazy socks (the craziest socks win prize).
Bulletin boards displaying teachers holding their favorite book over face (up to eyes). Students will submit guesses for which teacher is being shown. Literacy quote/statistic shared each morning during announcements. WMS Vocabulary Acquisition Challenge (focus on prefixes) during morning announcements.
Washington High	Manga Monday - Innovation Center will partner with the Anime Club to celebrate Manga and Graphic Novels	Takeaway Tuesday - #WhyIRead banner for students to sign. Books that had the biggest impact and why. Book raffle.	#WomanCrushWednesday - A Celebration of Female Protagonists in Literature	Throwback Thursday - English teachers will participate in a chapter read aloud of their favorite novel (or a high interest YA novel). Students will meet in the innovation center to enjoy drinks and snacks while the Innovation Specialist reads aloud to them.	Fantasy Friday - Students will Follow the Yellow Brick Road into the innovation center to enjoy some Butter Beer, make Wands or Rings using the 3D printer, and vote on our Fantasy Novel Bracket
	Fantasy Novel Bracket; Basketball Players and Lit Rich will travel to Holm elementary to read aloud to K-5 students.
West Florida High	Posters hung around the school about Celebrate Literature Week. Teachers display a list of their favorite books on their classroom doors. Innovation Center display of books about people who changed our world. Banner displayed in cafeteria for students to write down their favorite book and why.				4th block school-wide read.
Woodham Middle	Marathon Read		Sock-it-to-Reading	Read for Ten!	Hats Off to Reading!
	Bookmark Contest and Annual Book Quilt
District ELA Dept.	Pop-up Literacy Challenge/ Skill Olympics - FSA skills 1 Million Word Challenge Hall Center Book Drive-->Donate books to school doing BINGO for Books Virtual Book Talks				