

Putnam County School District Celebrate Literacy Week Plans

Monday,
January 23

Browning Pearce Elementary-Drop everything and Read-3 times on Monday to kick off the "Word Read Challenge" for AR. Students will wear "red" for the words "read" challenge. Competition for the class that reads the most words during Celebrate Literacy Week begins.

Interlachen Elementary-Poem read over the intercom. Students will buddy read.

James A Long Elementary-Dream of Changing the World Day-Wear pajamas and participate in reading drill. All Week-AR Challenge, Guess how many books are in the library challenge, Daily book giveaway.

Kelley Smith Elementary-“Let’s Sock it to it!”—Students wear crazy socks. AR contest begins-the grade level with the most AR points wins a movie and snack in the library.

Mellon Elementary- “The Cat in the Hat” Day-Wear your favorite hat day.

Melrose- UF Softball Team Guest Readers (PK-2).Door Decorating Begins for “Parade of Doors”.Million Minute Marathon Begins: Classes keep track of the number of minutes they read each day on the attached record sheet. AR Million Words per Day Challenge Begins: Students read and take AR tests each day. Library Book Count: Students will have the opportunity to guess how many books are in the entire library.

Middleton Burney Elementary- Favorite Book or Character Door Decorating Competition begins. How Many Books in the Media Center Contest begins-skateboard awarded on Friday! “What am I reading now?” campaign begins. Teachers and students record what they are reading.

Moseley Elementary- Read Book of the Month – Hooray for Reading (Choose Some Activities to Follow for the Rest of the Week.) Mrs. Chastain will introduce this book and announce Literacy Week by reading a small portion of the book aloud to the students on Morning News. Bookmark contest. The students will design and decorate a bookmark promoting this month’s book of the month “Hooray for Reading”.

Ochwilla Elementary- Door Decorating Begins for “Parade of Doors”. Classes decorate their classroom doors. It can be a favorite book or author.

Reading Minute Marathon Begins: Classes keep track of the number of minutes they read each day. Library Book Count: Students will have the opportunity to guess how many books are in the entire library. Book swap-students will bring in a book from home to “swap.” They will drop the books off into designated bins located in the cafeteria.

Overturf 6th Grade Center -AR word count contest-the language arts class with the most words read wins time in the game room.

Jenkins Middle-Literacy for Careers Focus Week.

Price Middle-Principal reads poem over the intercom. Book talk sign ups in ELA and Read 180 classes. Class Door decorations: Mimic your favorite book or author for your first period class.

Miller Middle-Daily Famous Book Quotes, Door decorating contest begins.

Crescent City High-Dress Up for Literacy Days.

Interlachen High –Theme: Rams Read to Future RAMS--Students will visit Interlachen Elementary to read and interact with students.

QI Roberts Jr-Sr High (Cambridge)-Teen choice award-Students drop off their name and favorite book title in a drawing. A name will be drawn each day, read on the intercom, and a prize awarded. Knights Caught Reading-Students reading for pleasure on his or her own time can be awarded “Knight’s Loot”, which can be turned in for an amazing prize.

Palatka High- Students will promote literacy and citizenship by visiting and sharing stories with local elementary classrooms. Guest readers will come all week.

Tuesday, January 24	Browning Pearce Elementary-Family Movie Night-Students will watch “The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe.” Free books will be given away to students who attend. Interlachen Elementary- Poem read over the intercom. Students will read books during breakfast. James A Long Elementary-Read Around the World-North-Wear your favorite cold weather gear and pair up for book buddies. Kelley Smith Elementary-“Be a star and Read”—students can wear sunglasses AND read outside during recess time. At Night-Book buffet for parents and students. Mellon Elementary -Frog and Toad Day-come dressed as twins with your BFF. Melrose Elementary- Read My Shirt Day: Students will wear shirts that “say” something (words, sayings, titles of books) to promote reading and literacy! Middleton Burney Elementary- Favorite Book or Character Door Decorating Competition begins. How Many Books in the Media Center Contest begins-skateboard awarded on Friday! “What am I reading now?” campaign begins. Teachers and students record what they are reading. Moseley Elementary- Vikings Readers Come to Share Literacy w/Grades 3-5 in the AM. CLO Readers Come to Share Literacy w/PreK-2nd Grade Kids in the PM. Ochwilla Elementary- Teacher’s Pick: Teachers will choose their favorite picture book, from the school library, to read aloud to their class. At the end of the day, Mrs. Thurber will turn the books into a display for the students to check out. Overturf 6th Grade Center -Sunshine State Reader Club will walk over to Moseley Elementary to read to classes. HATS off to a good Day-Everyone wears a hat! Jenkins Middle-Literacy for Careers Focus Week. Price Middle-Asst. Principal reads poem over the intercom. Students will create an advertisement on their first period door for their favorite book or author. Miller Middle-Stop, Drop & Read, Poetry Reading Luncheon, Daily Famous Book Quotes. Crescent City High-Dress Up for Literacy Days. Interlachen High –Theme: Rams Read to Future RAMS--Students will visit Interlachen Elementary to read and interact with students. QI Roberts Jr-Sr High (Cambridge)- Teen choice award-Students drop off their name and favorite book title in a drawing. A name will be drawn each day, read on the intercom, and a prize awarded. Knights Caught Reading-Students reading for pleasure on his or her own time can be awarded “Knight’s Loot”, which can be turned in for an amazing prize. Palatka High- Students will promote literacy and citizenship by visiting and sharing stories with local elementary classrooms. Guest readers will come all week.
Wednesday, January 25	Browning Pearce Elementary-Book Mark Day-Classes will pair up to make personalized bookmarks and read together. Interlachen Elementary- Poem read over the intercom. District Leaders will serve as guest readers. James A Long Elementary- Read Around the World-South-Wear your favorite beach gear and relax with guest readers Kelley Smith Elementary-“Score with Books!”—students can wear team attire. Mellon Elementary-Wacky Wednesday-wacky hair day. Melrose- Buddy Reading Day Middleton Burney Elementary- Favorite Book or Character Door Decorating Competition begins. How Many Books in the Media Center Contest begins-skateboard awarded on Friday! “What am I reading now?” campaign begins. Teachers and students record what they are reading. Moseley Elementary- “Read Around the Clock” Collectively, our school goal is to read nonstop from 8:30-3:00.

	Ochwilla Elementary- Read My Shirt Day: Students will wear shirts that “say” something (words, sayings, titles of books) to promote reading and literacy! Overturf 6th Grade Center -Guest readers will read to students. Score with Books Day-Everyone wears their favorite team. Jenkins Middle-Literacy for Careers Focus Week Price Middle-Media Specialist will read poem over the intercom. Read My Shirt Day: Students will wear shirts that “say” something (words, sayings, titles of books) to promote reading and literacy! DEAR Day: The whole school will “Drop Everything and Read” 30 min. during a class period when they hear DEAR over the intercom. Library Book Count: Students will have the opportunity to guess how many books are in the entire library. The student that is the closest will be given a prize at the end of the day on Friday. Miller Middle- Daily Famous Book Quotes. Crescent City High-Dress Up for Literacy Days. Interlachen High –Theme: Rams Read to Future RAMS--Students will visit Interlachen Elementary to read and interact with students. QI Roberts Jr-Sr High (Cambridge)- Teen choice award-Students drop off their name and favorite book title in a drawing. A name will be drawn each day, read on the intercom, and a prize awarded. Knights Caught Reading-Students reading for pleasure on his or her own time can be awarded “Knight’s Loot”, which can be turned in for an amazing prize. Palatka High- Students will promote literacy and citizenship by visiting and sharing stories with local elementary classrooms. Guest readers will come all week.
Thursday, January 26	Browning Pearce Elementary-Volunteer Day-Community volunteers will read to students. Interlachen Elementary- Poem read over the intercom. Students will read with silly socks. James A Long Elementary-Read Around the World-East-Wear your favorite “Big City” outfit and be a reading star. Family “Snow” night-Science Fair and Book Fair will be open. Hot chocolate and refreshments will be provided. Kelley Smith Elementary-“Reading is NO Sweat!”—Students can wear sweatpants. Mellon Elementary-Color War Day-each grade gets a different color and see who has the most spirit. Melrose- DEAR Day: The whole school will “Drop Everything and Read” for 30 min. during the reading block. You can come up with a theme for your classroom, such as staying inside with pillows, PJs, and flashlights, going outside with sunglasses and beach towels, or just good old reading! Middleton Burney- Favorite Book or Character Door Decorating Competition begins. How Many Books in the Media Center Contest begins-skateboard awarded on Friday! “What am I reading now?” campaign begins. Teachers and students record what they are reading. Moseley Elementary- Literacy Night from 5:30-7:00. BINGO for Books and ELA Rotation of Classroom Activities. Writing Activity - To go with the Book of the week – Display Students’ work for tonight’s Literacy Night. Ochwilla Elementary-DEAR Day-The whole school will “Drop Everything and Read” for 30 min. during the reading block. Classes will come up with their own theme for the day. Overturf 6th Grade Center -Bingo for Books in library during lunch. Go Wacky for Books— Crazy/Wacky hair/dress day. Jenkins Middle-Literacy for Careers Focus Week. Price Middle- Dean of students reads poem over intercom. Ads for Class Door shown over TV. Bingo for Books Night 6:00 – 7:00: All students and parents invited to play bingo for books. Refreshments provided. Miller Middle- Daily Famous Book Quotes. Crescent City High-Dress Up for Literacy Days.

	Interlachen High –Theme: Rams Read to Future RAMS--Students will visit Interlachen Elementary to read and interact with students. QI Roberts Jr-Sr High (Cambridge)- Teen choice award-Students drop off their name and favorite book title in a drawing. A name will be drawn each day, read on the intercom, and a prize awarded. Knights Caught Reading-Students reading for pleasure on his or her own time can be awarded “Knight’s Loot”, which can be turned in for an amazing prize. Palatka High- Students will promote literacy and citizenship by visiting and sharing stories with local elementary classrooms. Guest readers will come all week.
Friday, January 27	Browning Pearce Elementary-Story Door Day-classes will decorate classroom doors and tour each other’s doors. Words Read challenge winners will be announced. Interlachen Elementary- Poem read over the intercom. Classes will conduct a book parade. James A Long Elementary-Read Around the World-West-Round up your favorite books and read with a friend. Dress in your best wild west gear. AR challenge parties will take place Friday afternoon. Kelley Smith Elementary-“Hats off the Books”-students can wear hats to school. Winners of AR contest will be announced. Mellon Elementary-Fox in Socks Day-Crazy Sock Day. Melrose- Million Minute Marathon, Character Dress-Up Day: Everyone comes to school dressed as a character from a book! Parade of Doors: Classes tour the school and enjoy the creativeness of each class. Library Book Count Winner Announced! Middleton Burney- Favorite Book or Character Door Decorating Competition begins. How Many Books in the Media Center Contest begins-skateboard awarded on Friday! “What am I reading now?” campaign begins. Teachers and students record what they are reading. Dress up as your favorite character day. Guest readers will read The Wicked Wolf in Grandma’s Nightgown & Little Red Riding Hood. Bookmarks are due! Announce contest winners. Moseley Elementary- Caught Ya’ Reading – Mrs. Breton will be looking to take pictures of YOU and YOUR students reading today...anywhere, anyway, any time. If you are caught, you will earn a ticket for a drawing to be held later in the day. Pictures will be used for promoting literacy at Moseley!!!! Ochwilla Elementary-Million Minute Marathon-Record sheets turned in. Character Dress Up Day, Parade of Doors, Library Book Count Winner Announced, Book Swap. Overturf 6th Grade Center -Character parade-Students dress up as their favorite character, the parade will be during 5th block. Bingo for Books in library during lunch. Jenkins Middle-Literacy for Careers Focus Week. Price Middle - CRT reads poem over intercom. Library Book Count Winner Announced! Book Talk Sign Up Presentations will be given in ELA and Read 180 Classes. Dress up like your favorite character. Miller Middle- Daily Famous Book Quotes, door decorating contest judging. Crescent City High-Dress Up for Literacy Days. Interlachen High –Theme: Rams Read to Future RAMS--Students will visit Interlachen Elementary to read and interact with students. QI Roberts Jr-Sr High (Cambridge)- Teen choice award-Students drop off their name and favorite book title in a drawing. A name will be drawn each day, read on the intercom, and a prize awarded. Knights Caught Reading-Students reading for pleasure on his or her own time can be awarded “Knight’s Loot”, which can be turned in for an amazing prize. Palatka High- Students will promote literacy and citizenship by visiting and sharing stories with local elementary classrooms. Guest readers will come all week.