

Literacy Week 2017

Literacy Changes our World!
January 23-27

Every Day Take 20! Teachers and students will read for 20 minutes in class each day.
The love of reading is formed from rich literacy experiences.

Monday, January 23rd	Readers are great Leaders! Wear: Dress for a job you want one day! Guest Reader/Speaker: Commissioner Ziffer at 11:00 am (Kindergarten) Commissioner Miller at 1:00 pm (2nd Grade): "The Little Engine That Could" by Watty Piper
Tuesday, January 24th	Too Cool For School Wear: Sunglasses! Suggested book to read: "Pete the Cat: Too Cool For School" by Eric Litwin
Wednesday, January 25th	Reading Rocks, Wear Funky Socks! Wear: Mismatched socks to school. Suggested book to read: Fox in Socks" by Dr. Seuss
Thursday, January 26th	"A Bad Case of Stripes" Wear: Anything with stripes! Suggested book to read: "A Bad Case of Stripes" by David Shannon
Friday, January 27th	"Hats ON for Reading!" Wear: Hats! Suggested book to read: "I Want My Hat Back" by Jon Klassen

Everyday the morning show will feature a student group created song about the importance of reading and literacy in our world. Thank you to Coach Allen's classes!

We will also host our annual K-5 Book Swap in the cafeteria!