

Monroe County School District: Spreading Literacy: One View at a Time

Attention ***TWO OF OUR SCHOOLS HAVE ENTERED THE STATE-WIDE CONTEST***

Winners are chosen based on the number of views.

Watch them, share them, and watch them some more!

- Key Largo School: <https://youtu.be/iCsnvEfUsr4>
- Key West High School: <https://youtu.be/wROGcE0f3Ks>

Monroe County School District Highlight Reel #FLCelebratesLiteracy
PROTIP: look at the left hand columns for exciting and/or unique events
Monday, January 28 HOB: Door Decorating Contest POI: Character Connections	Spreading Literacy through Social Media updates Students and Staff will update their profile pictures with a caption that communicates how they connect with or see themselves in a text- using hashtag #FLCelebratesLiteracy #thisisme
Tuesday, January 29 SLS: Celebrity Guest Reader Day KWHS: Book Speed Dating	Spreading Literacy through Collaboration Students will read for stamina to beat last year's Celebrate Literacy Week record of minutes. Students will discuss what they've read for stamina with at least one other student.
Wednesday, January 30 MMHS: Reading with Therapy Dogs	Spreading Literacy through Digital Tools Students will provide a book review on MyOn or an Open-Educational Resource. Students will make recommendations to other students about future reading.
Thursday, January 31 PKS: Literacy Superbowl KLS: Family Night- Performances MMHS: Poetry Out Loud and Family Dinner Night KWHS: Poetry Out Loud GAE: Dolphin Cafe Poetry	Spreading Literacy through Performance-- Students will perform Reader's Theaters, including scripts, text reenactments, and poetry. Students will view our Superintendent's PSA.
Friday, February 1 SSE: Favorite Character Dress-Up Day SLS: Poetry Oral Reading Bee	Spreading Literacy through Poetry- Students will have a Poem in their pocket worth sharing. It may be one that they have found or written.

Click the ICON to FOLLOW on Social Media

/keysliteracy/CLW19

@sarahadamsmorton

@bestliteracy

/mortonliteracy

Monroe County School District: Spreading Literacy: One View at a Time

SCHOOL NAME: Gerald Adams #FLCelebratesLiteracy
Monday, January 28	Guest Readers (all week) Kick off GAE Word Count Challenge for the week! Connect Ed Home Students and Staff will update their profile pictures with a caption that communicates how they connect with or see themselves in a text- using hashtag #FLCelebratesLiteracy #thisisme
Tuesday, January 29	Students will read for stamina to beat last year's Celebrate Literacy Week record of minutes and discuss what they've read for stamina with at least one other student.
Wednesday, January 30	MyON minutes Challenge! Most minutes read today wins! Everyone is challenged to write a review on a completed book.
Thursday, January 31 Dolphin Cafe-Poetry Reading	Readers Theater! All classes are challenged to perform and record a Reader's Theater.
Friday, February 1	Read a poem: Poem in my Pocket AR Contest: Grade level winners for GAE Word Count Challenge for Celebrate Literacy Week 2019 determined/announced

SCHOOL NAME: Poinciana Elementary #MCDCLW18
Monday, January 28	Morning Announcements: Teachers/Staff/Students will share their favorite books (throughout the week). ConnectEd Home Students and Staff will update their social media profile pictures with a caption that communicates how they connect with or see themselves in a text (book/character)-using hashtag #FLCelebratesLiteracy #thisisme *Read a book(s) with a character(s) you identify with and tell why you identify with them. Draw a picture of yourself as the character.
Tuesday, January 29	Students will read for stamina to beat last year's district total. Students discuss what they've read. Students will read a book with a friend and share/compare your points of view.
Wednesday, January 30	E- Reads (MyOn) Students will provide a book review on MyOn or an Open-Educational Resource. Students will make online recommendations to other students about future reading.
Thursday, January 31	Students will perform a Reader's Theater. Guest Readers will read favorite stories 5th grade students perform puppet show/read book for 1st grade.
Friday, February 1	Students will have a Poem in their pocket worth sharing. It may be one that they have found or written. Literacy Trivia and Poetry Cafe AR Word Count Winners announced by grade level

Monroe County School District: Spreading Literacy: One View at a Time

SCHOOL NAME: Stanley Switlik #MCSDDLW18
Monday, January 28	Students and Staff will take a profile pictures with a book that communicates how they connect with or see themselves in a text- using hashtag #FLCelebratesLiteracy #thisisme Connect Ed home Guest Readers
Tuesday, January 29	Students will read for stamina to beat last year’s Celebrate Literacy Week record of minutes. Students will discuss what they’ve read for stamina with at least one other student. Buddy Reading partners Guest Readers
Wednesday, January 30 PTK Family Reading Night	Students will provide a book review on MyOn or an Open-Educational Resource. Students will make recommendations to other students about future reading. PTK Family Reading Night Guest Readers
Thursday, January 31	Students will perform a Reader’s Theater. Guest Readers
Friday, February 1	Students and Teachers dress up as their favorite book character Students will have a Poem in their pocket worth sharing. It may be one that they have found or written. Guest Readers Guess how many books in library? Library Kahoot Bookmark distribution to all students

SCHOOL NAME: Horace O’Bryant #FLCelebratesLiteracy
Monday, January 28	Connect Ed Home Buccaneer Book Trove (all week) Students and Staff will update their profile pictures with a caption that communicates how they connect with or see themselves in a text- using hashtag #FLCelebratesLiteracy #thisisme Literacy Door Decorating Contest Theme “Spreading Literacy” Students and teachers will decorate classroom doors to spread their love of literacy school-wide.
Tuesday, January 29	Students will read for stamina to beat last year’s total Students discuss what they’ve read. Dress up like you are a book character or person in a biography or wear a shirt that inspire reading
Wednesday, January 30	Students will read off on a Multitude of Devices Guest Readers in Media Center
Thursday, January 31	Students will perform a Reader’s Theater. Guest Readers in Classrooms
Friday, February 1 Courtyard Read-In	Students will have a Poem in their pocket worth sharing. It may be one that they have found or written. Students will view our Supt. PSA spreading literacy with his view.

Monroe County School District: Spreading Literacy: One View at a Time

	Courtyard Read-In          Reading on the lawn with PBIS snack cart          K &amp; 5- 8:50-9:10          1 &amp; 4- 9:10-9:30          2 &amp; 3- 9:30-9:50          6-8 during ELA block          Guest Readers
--	---

SCHOOL NAME: Key Largo School #FLCelebratesLiteracy
Monday, January 28 Students get “Caught Reading” and earn a ticket for a drawing for new books. There will be a prize bundle of books for K-2, 3-5, and 6-8. Runs all week - Winners Announced on Friday.	Students and Staff will update their profile pictures with a caption that communicates how they connect with or see themselves in a text- using hashtag #FLCelebratesLiteracy #thisisme          Students wear glasses/sunglasses for reading today          Bookmark Contest - Spreading Literacy One View at a Time.          Winner of each grade cluster wins “Librarian for the Day” pass          Get “Caught Reading” and earn a ticket for a drawing for new books. There will be a prize bundle of books for K-2, 3-5, and 6-8. Runs all week - Winners Announced on Friday
Tuesday, January 29 Students and staff dress up like a book character.	Students will read for stamina to beat last year’s Celebrate Literacy Week record of minutes. Students will discuss what they’ve read for stamina with at least one other student.          Dress up like you are a book character or person in a biography
Wednesday, January 30	Students will provide a book review on MyOn or an Open-Educational Resource. Students will make recommendations to other students about future reading.          Reading Makes Me a Jean-ious – Students will tell a friend about a book you read that helped your learn something and wear jeans today!
Thursday, January 31 Family Night          Elementary Reading Rodeo @6:15pm          Rap Battle Grades 5-8 @6:15 pm	Students will perform a Reader’s Theater in class.  Title 1 Family Reading Night          Dinner 5:30-6:00; Parent Activities 6:15-7:15 PK-K, 1-2, 3-5, Middle, Spanish Speaking Presentation; Student Activities PK-4          Reading Rodeo, 5-8 Rap Battle
Friday, February 1	Students will have a Poem in their pocket worth sharing. It may be one that they have found or written.          Book Giveaways for all students by Grade          Contest Winners Announced

SCHOOL NAME: Plantation Key School #FLCelebratesLiteracy
Monday, January 28	“Caught Ya” reading: Complete your classwork and get “caught” reading to earn a special “caught ya” ticket to go in a special drawing for free books. There will be a bundle of books for a student in each grade band: K-2, 3-5, and 6-8.          Connect Ed Home          Readers are Leaders: Read all week to earn your goal pin or

Monroe County School District: Spreading Literacy: One View at a Time

	Snowflake “Challenge” pin by reading “All About Math” Students and Staff will update their profile pictures with a caption that communicates how they help to spread literacy. Using hashtag #FLCelebratesLiteracy #thisisme
Tuesday, January 29	Guest Readers Read and try to Break Last Year's Record! Spreading Literacy through Collaboration Students will read for stamina to beat last year’s Celebrate Literacy Week record of minutes and discuss what they’ve read with at least one other student.
Wednesday, January 30	Students and staff will dress up as a relatable character. Students will provide a book review on MyOn or an Open-Educational Resource. Students will make recommendations to other students about future reading.
Thursday, January 31	Bring a book to lunch and get “caught” reading to earn a free popsicle. Students will participate in Reader’s Theater. Grand Opening of the new PKS celebrating the “Superbowl of Literacy” Family Readers Theater Lock-In with Performances on Stage as the grand finale.
Friday, February 1	Students will have a Poem in their pocket worth sharing. It may be one that they have found or written.

SCHOOL NAME: Sugarloaf School #MCSDC1W18
Monday, January 28	Literacy Door Decorating Contest Theme “Spreading Literacy” Students and teachers will decorate classroom doors to spread their love of literacy school wide. The winning doors will win a pizza party! Ed Connect Call Students and Staff will update their profile pictures with a caption about their love of reading or their love of a particular book.
Tuesday, January 29 Celebrity Guest Reader Day	Celebrity Guest Reader Day Guest readers will visit Sugarloaf School, read a books aloud to classes, and spread their love of reading with students. Students will read for stamina to beat last year’s Celebrate Literacy Week record.
Wednesday, January 30	Read My Shirt Day Students will wear shirts that inspire reading. Students will wear shirts that other students can read! Students will provide a book review on MyOn or on another platform.
Thursday, January 30 Oral Reading Bee (Poetry)	Oral Reading Bee (Poetry) Students will participate in an oral reading fluency poetry competition. *Schoolwide Oral Reading Bee

Monroe County School District: Spreading Literacy: One View at a Time

	K-2 Bee 8:10- 9:10          3-5 Bee 9:15- 10:15          6-8 Bee 1:15- 2:30          Students will perform reader's theater scripts in their classrooms.
Friday, February 1	Get Caught Reading          Bring a book or digital reading tool to lunch and get "caught" reading to earn a raffle ticket. Tickets will be drawn at the end of the day for special prizes!          Socks Off to Reading          Wear your favorite and most colorful socks to show off your love of reading!

SCHOOL NAME: Coral Shores High School #FLCelebratesLiteracy
Monday, January 28	Students and Staff will update their profile pictures with a caption that communicates how they help to spread literacy using hashtag #FLCelebratesLiteracy #thisisme
Tuesday, January 29	Students will read for stamina to beat last year's Celebrate Literacy week record and discuss what they have read with at least one other person. Guest Readers will come read aloud to students.
Wednesday, January 30	Students will provide a book review on MYON or an Open-Educational Resource. Students will make recommendations to other students about future reading.
Thursday, January 31	Students will perform Reader's Theater
Friday, February 1	Poem in Your Pocket Day

SCHOOL NAME: Key West High School #FLCelebratesLiteracy
Ongoing Activities Throughout the Week:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Title Tally competition (voting in Media Center)</li> <li>● Get Caught Reading photo Campaign (students and faculty)</li> <li>● Quizizz/Kahoot Book Trivia during lunch</li> <li>● Mystery Book of the Day competition (clue on announcements/submit answer in Media Center)</li> <li>● Favorite quotes about reading on announcements</li> <li>● Candy for books--return overdue books for an extra incentive this week</li> <li>● Media Center Book Display competition (during free periods/after school)</li> </ul>
Monday, January 28	Students and Staff will update their profile pictures with a caption that communicates how they connect with or see themselves in a text- using hashtag #FLCelebratesLiteracy #thisisme All students will use their devices to watch KWHS Literacy contest entry (submitted by Book Club) on YouTube. In 2nd period, all students will use their devices to watch KWHS Literacy contest entry (submitted by Book Club) on YouTube.          English classes in Media Center: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Why We Need Libraries: An Essay in Pictures</li> <li>● Digital footprint mini-lesson</li> </ul>

Monroe County School District: Spreading Literacy: One View at a Time

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● SURA Reading Log reminder</li> <li>● Book Speed Dating, Blind Date With a Book, Book Trailers, Student Book Reviews (teacher choice)</li> </ul>
Tuesday, January 29 Book Speed Dating, Blind Date With a Book, Book Trailers, Student Book Reviews	In 4th period, all students will read for stamina to beat last year's Celebrate Literacy Week record of minutes. Students will discuss what they've read with at least one other student. English classes in Media Center (see Monday)
Wednesday, January 30 Turning Back Time: In social studies classes, students review primary sources related to the time period they are studying and identify/compare/contrast the changes in technology, health, fashion, gender roles, equality from that time period to present day.	Students will provide a book review on MyOn or an Open-Educational Resource. Students will make recommendations to other students about future reading. Turning Back Time: In social studies classes, students review primary sources related to the time period they are studying and identify/compare/contrast the changes in technology, health, fashion, gender roles, equality from that time period to present day. English classes in Media Center (see Monday)
Thursday, January 31 Poetry Out Loud School Competition	Poetry Out Loud School Competition (3rd period) E-reading Challenge: Use Follett eBook library to find your next book. English classes in Media Center (see Monday)
Friday, February 1 "Nerd" Day	"Nerd" Day: In science, math, and computer classes students research famous content area "geeks" in centers and then present their findings to the class. English classes in Media Center (see Monday) .

SCHOOL NAME: Marathon Middle High School- #FLCelebratesLiteracy Ongoing Activities Throughout the Week <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Scholastic Book Fair</li> <li>● DNN- Favorite books series hosted by students and faculty</li> <li>● Door decorating contest- How do you celebrate literacy?</li> </ul>
Monday, January 28	Students and Staff will update their profile pictures with a caption that communicates how they connect with or see themselves in a text- using hashtag #FLCelebratesLiteracy #thisisme 2019 Giant Winter Book Giveaway Grades 6-8, Library Connect-ed call to MHS families to introduce read together challenge and the importance of at-home pleasure reading.
Tuesday, January 29	Students will read for stamina to beat last year's record and discuss what they've read for stamina with at least one other student.

Monroe County School District: Spreading Literacy: One View at a Time

	2019 Giant Winter Book Giveaway Grades 6-8 in Library Classroom Door Challenge: The first book you recommended to a friend or a book you wish your best friend would read.
Wednesday, January 30  Reading with Rover in the library	Students will provide a book review on MyOn or an Open-Educational Resource. Students will make recommendations to other students about future reading. Reading with Rover- students read to therapy dogs in the library
Thursday, January 31  Poetry Out Loud PAC at 8:30-10:30 Food and Literacy Bistro 5:30-7:30 pm	Students will perform a Reader's Theater during ELA classes. Poetry Out Loud- Middle School at 8:30; High School at 9:30 Family Literacy Night in Dolphin Bistro.
Friday, February 1	Students will have a Poem in their pocket worth sharing. It may be one that they have found or written. Guest speakers in MS classes to address how reading and writing skills are used in his/her occupation. Wear your favorite quote from a book day.