Description of Literacy Events

1. Book Tasting

- Sign up for a time
- Students will “discover” different genres of books
- See attachment for further directions

2. Literacy Trivia Quiz

- Each morning teachers will receive via e-mail a link to a google form with a literacy-related trivia question.
- Help students find the answer, and each teacher will submit their class response on the google form by the end of the day.
- The next day, we will reveal the answer to the previous day’s question and have a drawing for every class that submitted an answer. If your class is chosen, they will receive a special treat.
- We will also keep a record of responses for each class and grade-level. We will provide rewards based on grade-level participation and correct responses😊

3. Progressive Story

- Appropriate grade level story starters will be provided, or you can create your own
- You can have several different stories per class and pass them through groups, or just one story per class
- Please post final products outside of classrooms by Friday

4. Drop Everything and Read Day

- All classes will find a spot on the field to read by 9:30 am
- We will read until 9:50

5. Puzzle Piece Scavenger Hunt

- Six clues that lead to puzzle pieces will be sent out
- Collect all 6 pieces to put together puzzle with a famous quote
- The final trivia question for the week will be based on the quote😊

6. Bingo Cards

- Complete activities and earn a “Bingo”-any 5 in a row
- Turn in your winning Bingo cards with your name on it on Friday to enter drawing for chance to win prizes

Gray Middle School

Monday, January 27	An adventure awaits through every door! Gators are explorers by nature. Show how adventurous you are by decorating your door based on this year’s theme: “BOOK Your Trip! Adventure Awaits!” You may model your door after a travel brochure. The most creative door from each grade level will receive a donut breakfast.
Tuesday, January 28	Read and Let the World Go By! Gators will read an adventurous book of their choice or research a place they would like to go visit. The research may relate to the destination for the door contest.
Wednesday, January 29	Dress to Reflect your Adventurous Travel Style! Gators embrace diversity through a fashion sense of an adventure they would like to embark upon, but our dress code still applies.
Thursday, January 30	Mystery person shares how reading has influenced their life. How well do you know our teachers or staff such as principals, secretaries, etc.? Can you guess which person on campus shared their story on the morning announcements? Be sure to use the forms at lunch to submit your guesses from each of the four daily mystery readings. You must have submitted your guesses by the end of the day on Thursday to be eligible for a prize that will be awarded for getting all four correct.
Friday, January 31	Door Decorating Contest Ends and Mystery Persons are Revealed Judging of the doors will take place after R/A., and the mystery persons will be revealed during the morning announcements.
