INTRODUCTION

Welcome to Sparkplugs, the annual publication of exemplary practices for family and community involvement. The programs described in Sparkplugs reflect only a few of the many innovative practices used across the state to involve parents and family members (and the community) in meaningful school programs. Each program was nominated for the 2016 Family and Community Involvement Award by its own school district.

These summaries were taken directly from the applications submitted by the school districts. They have been edited for brevity, but every attempt has been made to retain the content of the original submission.

The purpose of the Family and Community Involvement Award, which is sponsored by the Florida PTA, the Florida Department of Education, State Farm Insurance and Wells Fargo, is to promote and recognize exemplary school practices that increase family and community involvement. All entries must be school-initiated projects that focus on specific family and/or community involvement strategies. The settings for the projects include the school as well as the workplace, faith-based sites and other locations common and familiar to families.

Based on the National PTA Standards for Family-School Partnerships in Education, the programs described in this document use one or more of the following key strategies to increase family involvement in schools:

1. Welcoming all families into the school community
2. Communicating effectively
3. Supporting student success
4. Speaking up for every child
5. Sharing power
6. Collaborating with the community

For information or assistance in implementing any of these unique family- and community-involvement programs, please write or call the program's contact.

Mission: To raise awareness and funds for promotion of literacy while incorporating habits promoted by our school's wellness program.

The DeSoto Trail Elementary School Trailblazer 5K-and-1-Mile Run for Literacy is initiated by the Parent Teacher Organization (PTO) to provide extra funds for supplemental enhancements to the media center. The Run's purpose is to create awareness and excitement about reading through a fun and fitness-centered event. This annual event has grown every year and draws a variety of participants, volunteers, and business and community partners. The event provides an opportunity for parents, faculty, staff and local secondary school students to work together to meet the literacy-related needs in the school. It offers students and other participants an opportunity to express their love of reading by coming dressed as their favorite literary character. Prizes are awarded to the fastest runners and to those wearing the best costumes. All runners are presented with small tokens of participation that include donations from business partners. Funds raised through registration fees and sponsorship support are donated to the DeSoto Trail Elementary School media center.

Phone: 850-983-5062

Mission: To honor the life of a Gulf Breeze High School student, Quentin Cooper, by raising money to support a local student fighting a terminal illness.

The Quentin Cooper Liver Life 5K is a run/walk hosted by Gulf Breeze High School, Student Government Association (SGA), in memory of a former student who passed away from liver cancer in 2013. Through this annual event, which attracts over 700 local runners, funds are raised to support a local student fighting a terminal illness. In 2015, the event raised over $20,000 from registration fees, a silent auction and community donations. A local family whose child was diagnosed with a type of cancer called Rhabdomyosarcoma (rhab-do-my-o-sar-co-ma) received the donation. This initiative aligns with the district's mission to help students become self-directed learners.

Mission: To excite parents and students about the scientific method and Florida's science standards by encouraging questions and testing hypotheses.

The goal of the Callahan Intermediate School initiative, Here Comes the Boom Science Night, is to demonstrate to students and families easy science projects that can be done at home and to teach them the scientific method. Through this experience, students may more confidently conduct their own scientific experiments. The experiments shown during the evening were both exciting and safe and can easily be replicated at home. Teachers performed the experiments with small groups of students and parents, using a methodical step-by-step approach. Physical activity was also integrated into the evening through the "Explosive Strength" activity. Dinner was provided to attract more parents. The science night brought parents to the school so that they may better understand what their children do at school each day and to share science projects that can be done at home.

Mission: To help raise funds for Blessings in a Backpack, which provides food for students in St. Johns County.

Allen Nease High School, Valley Ridge Academy, other schools and the community help families in need through the Blessings in a Backpack initiative. They purchase, pack and deliver backpacks each week to hungry children in local schools in an effort to tackle hunger in St. Johns County. Currently, the program serves over 500 students in the county, and the cost to fill a child's weekly backpack for an entire year is $100. To raise money for this program, Allen Nease High School and Valley Ridge Academy hosted a community event. Over 15 favorite local chefs teamed up to prepare and serve a line of delectable soups. Participants sampled a large assortment of soups then selected a soup bowl, designed by a student, to take home as a memento of the event. Mission: To engage, involve and inform the parent-teacher community of Richardson Middle School.

During the summer of 2015, a Parent Teacher Organization (PTO) was re-established to engage the parents of Richardson Middle School. In order to fulfil that mission, the PTO focused on a project to beautify the school that included creating wall murals for display in the school's cafeteria, media center and gymnasium; and repainting the buildings and classroom doors. Throughout the school year, the PTO continued to engaged parents by planning a fall festival, organizing fundraisers and recruiting parents through social media. Attendance at Family Engagement events increased due in part to the PTO's efforts. They worked to improve communication with families and the community and to respond to the needs of the school.

Mission: To restore an authentic Native American Chickee so that it can be used as a campus-based educational learning and meeting space.

In partnership with the Everglades Foundation, the Lake Park Elementary School Advisory Council restored the Chickee landmark structure. The structure was built many years ago and had fallen into a state of disrepair. The goal was to make the area more versatile so that it could be used as an outdoor teaching/learning area. Since the renovation was completed, teachers have enjoyed teaching classes in the outdoor area. In addition, gardens and landscaping have help enhance the outdoor setting making it a regular meeting place for families awaiting the end of each school day.

St. Petersburg, Florida 33711

Contact: Lizz Singh

Phone: 727-588-6000

Mission: To develop a positive school environment that engages all families.

Engagement for All encompasses a schoolwide philosophy that all students achieve at higher levels when the whole family is engaged. The three-tiered approach provides families with the opportunity to be involved at any level. Tier I activities consist of PTA-sponsored events, engineering expos, parent workshops and volunteer opportunities. Tier II are theme-based events that give students the opportunity to showcase their work. Tier III incorporates volunteer opportunities and parent workshops. Regular communication through newsletters, flyers, email and social media encourages families to join the conversation about becoming more involved. Responsibility for the program is shared by the PTA, School Advisory Council, Leadership Team, staff and students.

Mission: To increase student learning and performance by partnering with parents and families using the Academic Parent Teacher Team (APTT) model.

West Tampa Elementary School successfully implemented the Academic Parent Teacher Team (APTT) family-engagement model for parent-teacher partnerships. The APTT program is a tool to enhance student learning. West Tampa's APTT program creates a cohesive community environment that includes class meetings and individual conference sessions with families. Teachers share individualized academic data with each parent and provide parents with hands-on materials. Throughout the year, parents are able to see how their hard work positively impacts their children's academic success.

Mission: To provide food and clothing for students in need.

The mission of the program, Weekend Backpack and Bulldog Boutique, is to feed and clothe homeless students and families. Students collect new and used backpacks and use monetary donations to buy food to feed students for the weekend. Currently, 19 schools have a weekend backpack program all because they were inspired by the program at Zephyrhills High School. Many community groups and clubs donate age-appropriate new and gently used clothes to supply the Bulldog Boutique, where students in need can pick out clothing, shoes and school supplies.

Mission: To develop compassion and empathy for others through hands-on activities that connect to literature.

The novel, The Cay, follows the story of survival, empathy and compassion as two unlikely strangers learn to depend on each other. Lawton Chiles Middle Academy models their Cay Day on experiences of struggle similar to the novel's young protagonist. Students complete obstacles blindfolded, read with obscured vision, maneuver a wheelchair up ramps and more. The hands-on activities allow students to experience just what it is like to live with a disability and how to overcome adversity.

Mission: To provide interactive learning opportunities for students, parents and the community while celebrating student achievement.

The mission of the program, A Night at the Zoo, is to provide interactive learning opportunities for students, parents and the community while celebrating student achievement. As part of the STEM initiative at Grassy Waters Elementary School, classrooms were transformed by students into habitats. Each homeroom class chose an animal within that habitat to research and examine, then designed and built an interactive animal display, and finally created a multimedia presentation. During A Night at the Zoo, parents and community members were warmly welcomed onto campus and given a map to guide them through the zoo and its exhibits. Students created small souvenirs from reusable material that could be purchased at the Zoo Gift Shop. Over 200 families participated.

Mission: To provide services to Broward County Public Schools' students and communities.

The Broward County Council PTA opened two clothing banks at Apollo Middle School and Lauderdale Early Learning and Family Resource Center to address the need for clothing and school uniforms. To help alleviate hunger, the PTA held events to celebrate the holidays, providing food and groceries for Thanksgiving dinner to over 900 students and families, and Christmas gifts and gift cards. Families were given information and tools to help address some of their personal challenges. The program is funded by donations and supported through partnerships and volunteer time. Last year, 800-1000 families received free school uniforms, new sneakers, backpacks and other school supplies. Over 200 families were able to receive clothing, besides uniforms, for siblings and parents. Apollo Middle School parents and staff jointly developed the events and activities in an effort to increase parent and student participation in the school.
