

Chancellor of Public Schools

Pam Stewart

Pam Stewart is the Chancellor of Public Schools for the Florida Department of Education. In this role, she oversees K-12 Student Achievement; Curriculum, Instruction, and Student Services; School Improvement; and Educator Quality. Mrs. Stewart also oversees the management and delivery of such affiliate programs as K-12 Race to the Top projects, Just Read, Florida!, Office of Early Learning, and Florida's Virtual Education Program. These areas and programs provide supports for Florida's PreK-12 Education System which serves more than 2.67 million students and 189,000 educators.

Prior to her appointment as Chancellor of Public Schools, she was the Deputy Superintendent for Academic Services in the St. Johns County School District. She was also a classroom teacher, an elementary and high school principal, and a guidance counselor in Florida.

Mrs. Stewart holds a Bachelor of Arts in Elementary Education/Early Childhood from the University of South Florida and a Master of Education in Counselor Education from the University of Central Florida.