

2015-2016 Instructional Materials Call for Reviewers

K-8 Health Education

Instructional Materials (IM) Adoption Process

Florida's Next Generation Sunshine State Standards (2015) for Health Education detail the knowledge, skills, and resources a student should develop as the result of a quality Health education program. Helping students develop the knowledge and skill to select and participate in Health activity safely, competently and with personal satisfaction is a responsibility of Health education. It is the unique role of quality Health education programs to help all students develop health-related fitness, Health competence, cognitive understanding and positive attitudes about Health activity so that they can develop healthy and Healthy-active lifestyles.

Call for Reviewers

To evaluate the quality of instructional materials for use in Secondary Health Education classrooms, the Florida Department of Education is seeking reviewers with expertise and an in-depth understanding of the state standards for grades K-8 Health Education. The entire evaluation process is conducted online and no samples will be mailed to you.

The Florida Department of Education received one bid for K-8 Health Education materials. The breakdown of bids by subject area is included below.

- M/J Health 4: one bid

State Reviewer Qualifications

State instructional materials reviewers will hold one or more of the following credentials in the fields of Health education and/or health education:

- (a) A baccalaureate degree or higher,
- (b) Certification in the field or a related field,
- (c) Substantial experience with evidence of Health education content expertise and adolescent student achievement, or
- (d) Recognition as a Health education content expert. Such recognition may include, but is not limited to, awards received or publications related to the field of Health education.

District personnel may participate in the state adoption process as a state reviewer (who makes the official recommendation for or against adoption) or as a district reviewer, but they may not participate as both. No stipend will be paid to the district reviewers.

Requirements

All reviewers must complete these six steps before being selected to evaluate the materials:

1. Register as a State or District reviewer within the IM Review Portal.
2. Complete the State Affidavit; it must be notarized and mailed to DOE.
3. Complete the Stipend Justification Form and mail to DOE.
4. Complete the online Substitute Form W-9.
5. Review and understand the Florida Online IM Review Training Presentation.
6. Complete and pass the online IM Review Training test.

Affidavit

All state reviewers must be able to sign an affidavit attesting compliance with Section 1006.30, Florida Statutes. The affidavit must be notarized and the original mailed to the Florida Department of Education. A copy can be faxed and/or emailed as a place holder, but the original must be received in our office.

1006.30 Affidavit of state instructional materials reviewers.—

Before transacting any business, each state instructional materials reviewer shall make an affidavit, to be filed with the department, that:

- (1) The reviewer will faithfully discharge the duties imposed upon him or her.
- (2) The reviewer has no interest in any publishing or manufacturing organization that produces or sells instructional materials.
- (3) The reviewer is in no way connected with the distribution of the instructional materials.
- (4) The reviewer does not have any direct or indirect pecuniary interest in the business or profits of any person engaged in manufacturing, publishing, or selling instructional materials designed for use in the public schools.
- (5) The reviewer will not accept any emolument or promise of future reward of any kind from any publisher or manufacturer of instructional materials or his or her agent or anyone interested in, or intending to bias his or her judgment in any way in, the selection of any materials to be adopted.
- (6) The reviewer understands that it is unlawful to discuss matters relating to instructional materials submitted for adoption with any agent of a publisher or manufacturer of instructional materials, either directly or indirectly, except during the period when the publisher or manufacturer is providing a presentation for the reviewer during his or her review of the instructional materials submitted for adoption.

Stipend Justification Form

The stipend justification form must be completed in order to process your stipend payment(s) upon completion of the adoption. Please mail this form with your affidavit if possible; if not, please mail separately to FDOE.

Online Substitute Form W-9

Per the Florida Department of Financial Services, all state reviewers must register with the online Substitute Form W-9 Vendor Portal. Additionally, no stipend payments can be processed without this task completed.

Upon finalizing the registration, complete/notarize the affidavit, complete the stipend justification form, and mail both documents to FDOE.

IM Reviewer Evaluation Training Materials

- Florida Online IM Review Training Presentation
- Florida Online IM Review Training Presentation Slide Notes
- 2014 Evaluation Quick Reference Guide

All training materials will be posted on the IM website under the Instructional Materials Evaluation section. You must read the Review Training Presentation and the Evaluation Quick Reference Guide in its entirety in order to pass the test at the end of the presentation.

The IM Review Training Presentation and slide notes cover the evaluation policies, areas of review, rating scale and how to access, evaluate and use the online evaluation tool. The Evaluation Quick Reference Guide provides a quick tutorial of the IM Review Portal, how to access the materials for review and how to complete the areas of review evaluation.

Stipend for Reviewers

A stipend will now be paid to all State Instructional Materials Reviewers only, not district reviewers: In accordance with section 1006.29(1)(d), Florida Statutes, the department, as of July 1, 2014, may assess and collect fees from publishers participating in the instructional materials approval process. The monies so collected will be used to pay a stipend to state instructional materials reviewers.

State reviewers will receive a stipend of $330 for each bid evaluated. Each bid must be completed within three weeks from the assignment date; No exceptions.

All stipend checks will be mailed within 30 days upon the completion of the adoption in whole, and the commissioner has approved the recommendations.

Evaluating Instructional Materials for the state adoption requires time and effort; it is an undertaking that is very important and will support our goal for all Florida students to receive a high quality education that will prepare them to be active citizens, critical thinkers and lifelong learners.

We thank you for your part in this important process.

If you encounter any problems with the publisher's website contact our office immediately. Please do not contact the publisher or their helpdesk.
