Achievement Level Descriptions

NAEP Grade 4 Reading (Scale Score Range: 0-500)

NAEP Basic (208)	Fourth-grade students performing at the NAEP Basic level should be able to locate relevant information, make simple inferences, and use their understanding of the text to identify details that support a given interpretation or conclusion. Students should be able to interpret the meaning of a word as it is used in the text. When reading literary texts such as fiction, poetry, and literary nonfiction, fourth-grade students performing at the NAEP Basic level should be able to make simple inferences about characters, events, plot, and setting. They should be able to identify a problem in a story and relevant information that supports an interpretation of a text. When reading informational texts such as articles and excerpts from books, fourth-grade students performing at the NAEP Basic level should be able to identify the main purpose and an explicitly stated main idea, as well as gather information from various parts of a text to provide supporting information.
NAEP Proficient (238)	Fourth-grade students performing at the NAEP Proficient level should be able to integrate and interpret texts and apply their understanding of the text to draw conclusions and make evaluations. When reading literary texts such as fiction, poetry, and literary nonfiction, fourth-grade students performing at the NAEP Proficient level should be able to identify implicit main ideas and recognize relevant information that supports them. Students should be able to judge elements of author’s craft and provide some support for their judgment. They should be able to analyze character roles, actions, feelings, and motives. When reading informational texts such as articles and excerpts from books, fourth-grade students performing at the NAEP Proficient level should be able to locate relevant information, integrate information across texts, and evaluate the way an author presents information. Student performance at this level should demonstrate an understanding of the purpose for text features and an ability to integrate information from headings, text boxes, graphics and their captions. They should be able to explain a simple cause-and-effect relationship and draw conclusions.
NAEP Advanced (268)	Fourth-grade students performing at the NAEP Advanced level should be able to make complex inferences and construct and support their inferential understanding of the text. Students should be able to apply their understanding of a text to make and support a judgment. When reading literary texts such as fiction, poetry, and literary nonfiction, fourth-grade students performing at the NAEP Advanced level should be able to identify the theme in stories and poems and make complex inferences about characters’ traits, feelings, motivations, and actions. They should be able to recognize characters’ perspectives and evaluate character motivation. Students should be able to interpret characteristics of poems and evaluate aspects of text organization. When reading informational texts such as articles and excerpts from books, fourth-grade students performing at the NAEP Advanced level should be able to make complex inferences about main ideas and supporting ideas. They should be able to express a judgment about the text and about text features and support the judgment with evidence. They should be able to identify the most likely cause given an effect, explain an author’s point of view, and compare ideas across two texts.
